LOUIS J. DAUNER ASKS RE-ELECTION AS VICE-MAYOR

Louis J. Dauner.

The present Vice-Mayor asks for re-election as President of the Council on the Republican ticket. Mr. Dauner has been active in the administration of municipal affairs for the past fifteen years, and was most devoted and active in the affairs of the Board of Education, having secured the first of the new school houses for his constituents. Mr. Dauner was elected a member of the last Board of Public Service, and served most efficiently in the interest of our people. In 1913 he was elected President of the Council, serving fearlessly and impartially as presiding officer, and fully merits the support of all the people of our city. Mr. Dauner was born in Cincinnati in 1866, was educated in the public schools, and lived here all his life.

UNIONISTS ARE NOT GUILTY

New York.—After a trial that lasted two weeks, five officers and members of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union were declared not guilty of murder. Secretary-Treasurer Morris Sigman was one of the defendants. The case of two other members did not go to the jury, as the prosecution asked that these workers be dismissed. The jury's verdict marks the complete collapse of an attack against the garment workers' union.

Last spring the employers abrogated an agreement with this union and announced that no more contracts would be signed by them. This was followed by the arrest of seven active workers on the charge of murder.

The union replied to these assaults in a vigorous manner. At one of the largest protest meetings held in this city President Gompers gave this answer to the employers' policy:

"You can't destroy unions by breaking agreements. We favor contracts, but we do not depend upon them to live. In the fight for freedom we are going to stand shoulder to shoulder, not for war, but for peace. Any assault on our ranks or on the meanest among us, will find us ready to fight to maintain the lives of the toilers of our country."

While preparing to defend their fellow workers, the unionists strengthened their lines to meet the employers' repudiation of a contract. This activity resulted in the employers agreeing to arbitrate the question, which resulted in wage increases and a declaration by the arbiters that some system must be devised whereby claims of workers that they are unjustly discharged may be considered.

The board expressed the following views on the employers' theory that "every man has the right to run his own business."

"No human being is wise enough to be able to trust his sole judgment to decisions that effect the welfare of others; he needs to be protected, and, if he is truly wise, will welcome protection against the errors to which he is liable, in common with his kind, as well as against the inspirations of passions and selfishness. For this reason a tribunal of some kind is necessary, in case either of the parties to this covenant believes itself to be unjustly aggrieved."

NO MORE CONVICT BROOMS.

Chicago. — "The manufacture of brooms at the Joliet State Penitentiary will be discontinued just as soon as the present supply of material on hand is exhausted," is the word sent to Secretary-Treasurer Boyer, of the International Broom and Whisk Makers' Union, from the office of Gov. Dumm. Secretary Boyer, together with officers of the state federation of labor, took the matter up with Warden Zimmer, of the Joliet institution, recently, and that official recommended to the governor that the shop be closed.

A few months ago the unionists induced the management of the Chicago house of correction to abandon the manufacture of convict brooms, and the broom makers' union will now attempt to secure like results in Iowa.

Tested.

"Them was nice folks you waited on, Mamie, ain't they?"
"No, no, dear! Appearances is deceitful. They didn't have no charge account. Paid cash for everything.—Judge."

She was a frivolous, fashionable young woman with beaux galore, but one man with only a small income seemed to be the favorite.

"You'll have to work hard before you win that girl," said his mother.
"And a good deal harder after you win her," answered his father, who knew what he was talking about.
